Dear Penn State Law Students,

Thank you for your thoughtful input to the faculty on how Penn State Law should amend its grading policy this semester. We are very grateful for it, and it was extremely helpful to the faculty as it worked to come up with an approach that was supportive of our students. We appreciated students being willing to share their perspectives and the challenges that they and their families are facing.

The faculty voted today to move to a mandatory credit/no credit grading policy for Spring 2020. It is still finalizing some of the practical details of implementation, and we will be back in touch with those details as soon as they are finalized.

We are here to support you at this challenging time. Please feel free to reach out to us as you navigate those challenges so that we can support you.

Best,
Hari Osofsky

Hari M. Osofsky
Dean | Penn State Law and the School of International Affairs
Distinguished Professor of Law | Professor of International Affairs | Professor of Geography
The Pennsylvania State University | University Park

814-863-1521| hmo8@psu.edu
252 Lewis Katz Building | University Park, PA 16802
Twitter: @hariosofsky
SSRN: http://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/cf_dev/AbsByAuth.cfm?per_id=512185

PennState Law PennState School of International Affairs