Article 5 Supplementary Regulations

5.100 Permitted Variations from Required Areas

The minimum lot, yard, and height requirements of Article 4 shall prevail in all cases, except as follows:

5.101 Existing Non-Conforming Lots. In any zone, where a non-conforming lot exists as a separate entity at the time of passage of this Ordinance, and where the owner of the non-conforming lot does not own an adjoining lot, then the following development is permitted:

- a. If the lot is located in any R-District, a single family dwelling may be constructed on it as a permitted use, provided that the lot is in at least 75% compliance with each of the following requirements for the Single-Family dwelling, as specified in the District in which the lot is located: lot area, lot width, rear yard, side yard, and maximum building coverage.
- b. If the lot is located in any remaining District, then a structure not exceeding two stories in height may be constructed on it, for use permitted in the District in which it is located, as shown on Schedule I, provided that the off-street parking and loading requirements of this Ordinance shall be complied with and that the front, side, and rear yards are in keeping with the surrounding area, except the at a side yard of at least 50 feet shall be required whenever such a use abuts an existing residential use or a residential district.

5.102 Height Limitations. District height limitations shall not apply to church spires, cupolas, domes, monuments, water towers, chimneys, smokestacks, farm structures, silos, flag poles, utility poles, radio and television masts or aerials, utility towers, and parapet walls extending not more than four feet above the limiting height of the building. The Board, after review by the Commission, may waive the height limitations of this Ordinance, as they pertain to elevator apartments and to commercial and manufacturing buildings. In such the Board shall determine that such a departure is in the best interests of the Borough of Lanesboro, Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania, that it will be compatible with and not cause substantial injury to the value of other adjoining
