

AILA Law Student Membership Benefits

InfoNet (www.aila.org) offers the most up-to-date immigration news and members-only information available online, including a special law student page with information specifically for law students.

Career Center

With its focus on attorneys and law professors who practice and teach immigration law, the AILA Career Center offers AILA members-and the immigration law community at large-an easy-to-use and highly targeted resource for online employment connections. Lawyers, paralegals, law office staff, administrators, law librarians - post available jobs and exciting employment opportunities for all these positions!

Both members and non-members can use AILA Career Center to reach qualified candidates, and AILA members receive a significant discount off the nonmember rate.

Make sure to visit the Members Only Career Resources page. Here you will find job hunting tips, job interview advice, resume writing tips, salary information, and more!

Student Listserv and E-newsletter

Network with other student members from around the country: Ask questions, start a debate, or discover answers to the case challenges that you are studying at your own school. Law student members also receive a quarterly e-newsletter geared specifically to the interests of immigration law students. This benefit highlights ways for you to get involved in AILA, read AILA member success stories, and much more!

Reduced First Year Regular Membership Dues

If a student is a Law Student Member for more than one year they pay $220 for their first year of Regular AILA Membership. That's a savings of $100!

myAILA- is your one stop web-based platform for managing all aspects of your AILA membership (communications preferences, biographical/professional information, membership renewal payments) as well as an avenue for searching and contacting fellow members.

Through myAILA members can:

- Search for AILA members by utilizing our Find a Member feature
- Update contact and demographic information immediately
- Register for upcoming events
- Manage listserv subscriptions
- Upload a photo to the member profile!

Publications

As an AILA member, you receive substantial discounts on AILA publications written and edited by some of the nation's leading immigration law experts, including a savings of $100 off the nonmember price for the bestselling Kurzban's Immigration Law Sourcebook. Members also receive advance notice of forthcoming titles so you can be the first to have the latest information available. In addition, when you subscribe to AILALink Online, AILA Publications' affordable and comprehensive online research library, you gain access to:

- Primary sources including INA, CFR, 7 and 9 FAM, public laws, BIA decisions, BALCA decisions, and more;
- AILA publications including Kurzban's, The David Stanton Manual on Labor Certification, AILA's Asylum Primer, and more;
- More than 230 fillable immigration forms created by the agencies but compiled in one place for added convenience (save, print, and e-mail using Adobe Acrobat Standard or Professional 8.0 or higher). Adobe software not included with your AILALink subscription.
- PLUS! A split payment option for credit card users! (A $50 administrative fee will be charged.)

E-mail ailalink@aila.org for more details or go to www.ailalink.org to subscribe. For publications, visit www.ailapubs.org for a complete listing of titles and descriptions.

Conferences

Students have access to all AILA conferences and events at a significantly discounted price. Audio and Web Seminars are available throughout the year, covering a variety of immigration law topics focused on cutting-edge issues, updates on legislative and regulatory concerns, and important information and guidance for a number of the subspecialty areas of practice. Visit our website for a list of upcoming events.

Review the complete library of Seminar recording archives, which are available for immediate purchase and download.

Advocacy and Communications

AILA's Advocacy professionals work tirelessly to help educate lawmakers and their staff on Capitol Hill about AILA's position on a wide array of immigration-related issues in an effort to produce concrete results for you and your clients. AILA also keeps you up-to-date on all immigration-related legislative initiatives and offers online tools that can connect you to your elected officials and help make sure your voice heard.

Are you looking to get involved in the advocacy process? AILA provides the tools to help you get involved:

- News from the Hill
- Contact Your Representative
- Legislation and Analysis
- Advocacy Made Easy
- AILA on the Issues
- Browse state and local issues