

PENN STATE LAW

“INSIGHTS AND TIPS FOR COMPETING IN THE VIS MOOT”

PANELISTS

Ronald A. Brand was the driving force behind the creation of the University of Pittsburgh's Center for International Legal Education (CILE) and its Master of Laws Program for Foreign Law Graduates. Prof. Brand has been a Fulbright Scholar at the Universiteit Brussel, a Research Scholar at the Institute for Advanced Studies at the University of Bologna, and a visiting professor at the University of Augsburg. He has lectured on international trade and business law matters at universities in the U.S. and abroad. Prof. Brand represented the United States at Special Commissions and the Diplomatic Conference of the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

Petra Butler is a graduate of the University of Göttingen and fully qualified lawyer, barrister and solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand. In 2004, she was the Holgate Fellow, Grey College, Durham University, and in 2008 she held a Senior Fellowship at the University of Melbourne. Ms. Butler has held visiting appointments at the Chinese University of Political Science and Law, the University of Melbourne, the University of Adelaide, Bucerius Law School, Universidad de Navarra, and Northwestern University Law School. Ms. Butler is a lecturer at Victoria University of Wellington.

Anthony Daimsis teaches at the University of Ottawa and is Director of the BiJural National Program. He supervises the common law Jessup, Vis and FDI moot teams and is the moot court coordinator. He works with the National Judicial Institute and is lead instructor for the Professional Certificate in International Arbitration. Prof. Daimsis is the Director for the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Canadian branch, and frequently serves as an arbitrator in domestic and international commercial disputes. He is on the ICDR panel of international arbitrators. He is co-authoring the forthcoming Chapter Eleven of the North American Free Trade Agreement as well as the arbitration chapters in Dispute Resolution: Readings and Case Studies, 4th Edition.

Patricia Shaughnessy directs the Master of International Commercial Arbitration Law at the Department of Law at Stockholm University, where she teaches and conducts research in the fields of procedural and commercial law. Ms. Shaughnessy is the Vice-Chair of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce and has been a Member of its Board for about ten years. She is also a member of the “Vis Verien”, the entity that organizes the Willem C. Vis Arbitration Moot. Ms. Shaughnessy is recently a Scholar-in-Residence at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP in London and visiting professor at Queen Mary University of London.

Catherine A. Rogers is a scholar of international arbitration and professional ethics at Penn State Law and Queen Mary, University of London. She is a Reporter for the American Law Institute's Restatement of the U.S. Law (Third) of International Commercial Arbitration, one of the ICC Palestine's delegated members of the Court of Arbitration for the Jerusalem Arbitration Center, and co-chair of the ICCA-Queen Mary Task Force on Third-Party Funding in International Arbitration. She is the president and founder of Arbitrator Intelligence, a non-profit entity aiming to increase transparency, fairness, and accountability in the arbitrator selection process. Her book, Ethics in International Arbitration, was recently published by Oxford University Press.

A Video Recording of the Panel Discussion Can be Viewed At Insert address here

PennState Law