

For the Community: Asylum Resources

Below is a list of materials available for lawyers meeting with community members and potential clients undergoing the asylum application process. These materials are a compilation of resources provided by immigration law professors and practitioners, and includes pro se materials for the clients, and training materials to assist lawyers during the process. All materials have a link for where they can be located, and a list of any languages other than English the materials are available in. This list was created on June 14, 2019, and does not constitute legal advice.
