Mental Health Committee Mission Statement

To examine and make recommendations regarding the current state of student mental health and substance use issues with an emphasis on helping Penn State Law support a healthy learning and working environment. Additionally, to help students at Penn State Law learn and form habits consistent with good short-term and long-term mental health.