2020-2021 APPLICATION FOR NEED-BASED GRANTS

Priority Deadline: March 1, 2020 for new students • April 15, 2020 for continuing students

All financial aid applicants must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by the above deadline. Complete the FAFSA online at http://fafsa.gov. Please include school code 003329 when completing your FAFSA.

Students receiving merit scholarships in amounts less than $45,000 annually may be eligible to receive Penn State Law Need-Based Grants. In order to be considered for these grants, in addition to the FAFSA you must also submit this Penn State Law Financial Aid Application. If you are younger than 30 years old and do not have dependents other than a spouse, you will not be considered for need-based grant funding unless you report parent information on the FAFSA. Please direct any questions about this policy to the Law Financial Aid Office.

You may at a later time be asked to provide documentation of the information provided on these aid applications.

If you have any special circumstances which you believe may influence your eligibility for financial assistance, please attach an explanatory statement.

SECTION IV
I certify that the information provided on this application and in any related material is true and complete. I understand that any misrepresentation may result in the denial or cancellation of financial aid. I accept responsibility to promptly inform Penn State Law in writing of any change in the information that I have provided on this application. I understand that Penn State Law need-based grant recipients will be expected to borrow the maximum Federal Unsubsidized Loan eligibility. I understand that if I am enrolled in a joint degree program, I will not be eligible for need-based grants for years that I am not taking primarily law courses. I agree to allow Penn State Law to publicly identify me as the recipient of any endowed scholarships I may receive.
